

StayinFront Insight is a powerful, cloud delivered, all-in-one retail execution data warehouse and business intelligence solution that brings together the critical data your teams need to understand what is happening in your retail channels. Built with Consumer Goods manufacturers in mind, StayinFront Insight includes user-friendly dashboards and interactive analytics and reports in both tabular and graphical formats.

Easy-to-use, web-based portal contains a broad suite of standard reports with pre-built & pre-calculated measures

Role-specific dashboards with data partitioning keeps team members focused on the right metrics

Optimized for analytics and reporting and processes massive amounts of data quickly & cost-effectively

Ability to integrate with additional sources of information such as POS data & information from backend systems such as ERP

Do More, Know More and Sell More with StayinFront TouchCG and StayinFront Insight™